SUBJECT: Certain Problems of Office Interrelationships

25X1A9a

1. On 4 June [REDACTED] sent the attached paper to the Assistant Directors calling attention to relationships which he hoped would be followed.

2. In order to take stock on how developments in this field have been progressing, it would be appreciated if a representative of your office could meet in Room 2007 M Building at 2:30 on Tuesday afternoon, 6 November. It would be helpful if your representative had fairly complete knowledge of the way in which the relationships indicated in this attached paper have been developed. You may wish him to raise at this time problems or questions which might be discussed for the mutual benefit of the other offices.
